MOVIE NITE - I CONFESS

Friday, 21 April, 8pm at the Auditorium

A 1953 Alfred Hitchcock masterpiece, "I Confess" has a priest at its dramatic centre who is bound by the Seal of Confession not to disclose what he knows of a murder even as suspicion falls on him.

Montgomery Clift is utterly convincing as the young priest who is trapped in a moral dilemma.

Food will be available at the Canteen from 7.00pm.

 Admission is free. **

JOINT ADVISORY NOTICE FROM CHURCH OF THE HOLY CROSS AND LAND TRANSPORT AUTHORITY

The Land Transport Authority (LTA) and the Church have received numerous feedback from the local community on vehicles parking indiscriminately along Clementi Avenue 1 on weekends. The parking has caused service disruptions to public buses plying along the mentioned road and inconvenience to other road users.

For safety reasons, LTA will NOT allow any vehicles to park along Clementi Avenue 1. Both the Church and the Authority are working closely to ensure the safety of churchgoers and other road users.

The Authority will take enforcement actions against errant road users who flout traffic rules and regulations. You are strongly advised to park at nearby HDB multi storey carparks. The nearest being located at Blk 416A (as shown in Church powerpoint slide).
